

Tebbetts Guest Kiwanis Speaker

TELLS OF BASEBALL EXPERIENCES

One of the most enjoyable talks heard by the members of the Kiwanis club was by George "Birdie" Tebbetts at their meeting Wednesday. The club had a nearly 100% attendance and many guests were present. Norman E. Butler, manager of the Grayling Funeral Home, was admitted to membership at the meeting.

Guests present were Judge John C. Snider and his stenographer Samuel Atkins (major of West Branch), Hans L. Peterson, Clarence Johnson, and L. Kramer of Saginaw.

Baseball and some of his experiences were the themes of Mr. Tebbetts' talk. He prefaced his address by thanking the people of Grayling for the grand way in which they had received him among them, really as one of them. He said he hoped to make Grayling his home.

One of the things he wishes to bring to the public is that of night baseball. He gave some very sensible reasons for his objection to night playing and cited a number of valid reasons why he opposed it. This form of the national pastime is very rigidly opposed by major league players and, in their opinion, is dangerous. He told of one instance during a night game when the catcher threw the ball to head on a steal of second base when the hider dropped the ball and wasn't found before the base runner went all the way to home for a score.

His story of his experiences in minor and major league baseball were highly interesting and was interspersed with some highly amusing stories.

While the usual time allotted to Kiwanis guest speakers is 30 minutes, it was nearly an hour before the audience would permit Mr. Tebbetts to close his talk. Many pertinent questions were asked, all of which he answered very satisfactorily.

Speaking of Charles Gehringer, the latter has stated that no baseball player in the world is worth more than an annual salary of $25,000 a year, while he, Tebbetts, would be glad to accept as his salary all that Gehringer gets over that amount.

His discussion of some of the players on the Tiger team and other players that we read about were highlights in his address.

Mr. Tebbetts is an interesting and fascinating speaker and has a story that is "tops" with any crowd that enjoys the national pastime.

Harold (Spike) MacNeven is to be thanked for arranging for Mr. Tebbetts to talk to the Kiwanians.

Tonight the members of the Grayling club are invited to attend a meeting given by the Traverse City club complimenting Gladwin Lewis, retiring district governor of Michigan. Several from here expect to attend.

The meeting next week will be held on Thursday evening (instead of Wednesday noon) at Horseshoe Lake club, where they will be guests of the proprietor, George Worthey.

Golden Gloves Set For Jan. 25, 26, 27

ABOUT 75 ENTRANTS FILED. WINNERS GO TO BAY CITY

Harley Russell, manager of the golden gloves tournament that is being sponsored by the Rube Tebbetts Chapter of the Izaak Walton League, says that plans for the annual event are going along nicely.

Already entrants are arriving daily. Applications have been received and others promised from the following places:

Roscommon, Houghton Lake, Everet, Lake City, McBain, Cadillac, Manton, South Boardman, Kalkaska, Mancelona, Gaylord, Frederic, West Branch, Rose City and Comins.

Boysie City is conducting a sub-tournament January 17, 18 and 19, the winners of whom will take part the following week in the Grayling tournament. Winners in the Grayling tournament will participate in the Bay City Times tournament the following week.

The local tournament will be held in the Grayling school gymnasium. Last year's event attracted large crowds and it is expected that the attendances will be bigger than ever this year. It is understood that no children of school age will be admitted.

DID YOU SLEEP WELL LAST NIGHT?

It not, you can learn how by taking advantage of the newly discovered secrets science has uncovered. In the University of Chicago, a laboratory under the direction of Professor Kleitman has studied "human guinea pigs" for a total of more than 10,000 nights of sleep. The results of this extensive study is offered by William Benton. Read his article in this week, the color-gravure magazine with next Sunday's Detroit News.

I want to thank all those who voted for me in the contest at Mac & Gidley's drug store, enabling me to win seventh prize. And I also want to thank Mr. MacNamara.

DOWN THE AU SABLE EVERY MONTH OF YEAR

Chas. Gehringer Initiated in River Canoeing

To John Bruun weather means nothing whenever he gets a yen to take a canoe trip down the mighty AuSable. Winter, spring, summer and autumn each offers its thrills to canoeists and John and his canoe have tested its waters at some time during each month of the year—January to December. Whether under a hot sun in July or the bleakest of February days, when it has been necessary at time to carry his canoe over frozen streams to the next open water, it was all the same to him.

Waldo Hildebrand, secretary manager of the Michigan Association of Insurance Agents of Lansing, had extracted a promise from Mr. Bruun to take him and Charles Gehringer, Detroit Tiger star, on one of these trips.

Accordingly last Thursday evening Mr. Hildebrand and the famous Gehringer arrived in Grayling and the former reminded Mr. Bruun of his promise, "I never go back on a promise," Mr. Bruun replied, "I don't know anything about baseball and Gehringer doesn't know anything about canoeing, and Hildebrand doesn't know anything about either so this should make a good party."

So at 8:30 Friday morning the trio set out from U.S.-27 bridge, with John in the prow, Hildebrand in the stern each with a paddle, and Charlie seated in the middle. A 25 mile trip to Wakeley bridge is a long canoe journey even in the summer, but with high water and swift currents and frigid weather, with the AuSable flowing thru the grandest winter scenery that may be imagined, it offers the greatest of thrills.

All went well until Hildebrand dropped his movie camera into the river. His attempts to fish it out nearly capsized the canoe and Bruun exclaimed, "There is no need of giving all of us a ducking, dive in and get the camera and we won't all have to get wet."

Waldo wasn't long in deciding and soon he was down at the bottom of the river where the muskrats swim, and came out holding the precious camera. A fire soon dried his clothes and the trio pushed on to further adventures.

Noting the ease in which John and Waldo plied their paddles, Charlie vowed that he would like to try the piloting. "Sure, go ahead," his companions exclaimed. All went well for a while, but at a sharp bend in a swift current, a sweeper, which is the bane of all neophyte guides, the canoe slid underneath and Charlie, in the stern, reached up and grabbed the reclining tree.

Next thing he was suspended in the air with only his heels holding onto the canoe. Luckily the boat could be shoved back and the "hero" rescued without having to take the ducking that usually goes with such a catastrophe.

Cameras clicked when this party left Grayling and also when they disembarked at the Wakeley bridge, where a warm fire awaited them, and they most heartily welcomed it. It was 5:30 p. m. when they got there.

To quote the Tiger star—"the trip was one of the finest I ever had" and all declared they would not have missed the thrills and winter beauty they had enjoyed despite the cold.

All agreed the trip was a great experience and its memories will linger long in the minds of the trio. Mr. Gehringer says he is anxious to have another someday.

State To Get Out Of Liquor Business

The controversial issue of liquor control—as long as a demand for liquor exists, controversy is inevitable—is injected into the 1939 program by the Governor with an emphasis on greater revenue earnings by the state.

Governor Fitzgerald would take the state out of the retail business whereby the state maintains community liquor stores for sale of liquor purchased by the state at wholesale in large quantities.

Retail merchants would take over the selling. The state would act as "a clearing warehouse, a tax collecting agency and an enforcing arm."

"I believe that with proper adjustments, greater revenues could be derived if state liquor stores were abolished," he points out. "Hundreds of thousands of dollars could be saved in decreased payrolls, rent, maintenance and so forth."

This policy has the endorsement, it is understood, of Lieutenant Governor Luren Dickinson of Charlotte, a long-time dry.

State Tourist Bureau

Following a cue given by many tourist-minded states, Fitzgerald favors the retention of the state tourist bureau which was created by the last legislature with $50,000 state funds.

Coordination of tourist promotion work so that a central advertising campaign is carried on for Michigan as a whole would be continued by the Governor with $100,000 at his bidding, instead of $50,000.

However, half of the additional $50,000 would be utilized to promote the sale of Michigan agricultural products on a matching of state aid basis. The success of Maine, Washington, Oregon, and Idaho in promotion of their agricultural products through advertising is well known. Fitzgerald endorses this growers' movement with an offer to match their funds up to $25,000.

Blue Goose Lines To Run Snow Buses

BUSES TO LEAVE DETROIT FRIDAYS, RETURNING SUNDAY EVENINGS.

$14.95 Pays For Trips, Meals, Lodgings, Park Admissions.

Thru the enterprise of the Eastern Michigan Motorbuses, Blue Goose buses will run weekly trips from Detroit to Grayling for the purpose of winter sports.

These buses will leave Detroit every Friday (weather permitting) at 5:30 p. m. and return at Grayling until 4:00 p. m. Sunday afternoon. The fare for the trip is $14.95 per person and includes the bus trip, breakfast, lodging and meals at Saginaw, and transportation and admission to the winter park and six park concession tickets. This is an all-expense trip and passengers will have no further necessary expenses.

Traveling on snow buses is something new and modern. The buses are the latest, up-to-date, minute make. Reclining chairs enable passengers to relax and to rest in comfort. They are in ways comfortable, warm and pleasant.

This will give the passengers two whole days in Grayling, where they may participate in all types of winter sports at the most highly developed winter sports park in America. Also for those who wish to fish, Lake Margrethe, one mile from the winter park, offers them as good fishing as Northern Michigan provides.

We shall look forward with considerable interest as to the public's interest in this venture and as to what success it may attain.

POSTOFFICE BUILDING YEAR OLD

The first anniversary of the occupancy of the new Post Office building has revealed its importance as part of the civic interest of the community, and the consequence in raising the postal revenue of the Grayling post office to the highest level in its history. During the past twelve months the postal receipts have shown an increase of about $1200.00, a noteworthy gain in stamp sales and miscellaneous receipts, and excludes the substantial business reflected in the money order and postal savings sections. The local post office had an unusual high capita sale ranking for United States Savings Bond sales for an office of its size, and ranked twenty-six for post offices in Michigan.

As a result of this fine showing the Grayling post office enters the next higher classification of second class post offices effective with the beginning of the next fiscal year. This advancement provides a $100.00 increase to the salary of Postmaster McDonnell. This is the first time the receipts of the Grayling postoffice, have made this possible.

Postal receipts being considered one of the most reliable factors in determining a city's business growth and status, the increase in business at the local postoffice bespeaks good business conditions in Grayling the past twelve months, and is indicative of a promising future for the community.

James McDonnell, Postmaster.

Notice To All Parents

The schools, churches and picture show have been closed to children and to prevent their concentration and to prevent further outbreak of scarlet fever.

I have a report that a number of school children have been out at the Winter Sports park which is also an ideal way to spread contagion. Therefore we are requesting your cooperation and support in keeping your children home until this epidemic is brought under control.

MORNING COMES!

By ANNE CAMPBELL

Morning comes! The silver dawn
Is mingled with the blue,
And sparkling on the velvet lawn
Are jeweled drops of dew.
These are my gifts: the bird's brave call,
The rambling rose upon the wall,
And courage (that is best of all!)
To see the long day through!

How I would miss the sunny hours,
The birds, the elm tree's shade,
The blessing of my garden flowers,
The summer's bright parade!
But still I could endure the thrust
Of circumstance, if Morning just
Brought gifts of courage and of trust
To keep me undismayed!
